

Early Warning Systems, Inc.

“Other companies ‘Options’ are STANDARD with Early Warning Systems *** ”

EWS3300 Series Control Activation Station

Simple Operation

- The EWS3300 Series Control Activation Station is the complete solution for sending paging and control codes to remote equipment. The signal is transmitted when the user presses the button twice. After the signals have been sent by the internal radio, the user can send additional signals, with the decoder, they can read status responses sent by siren. Buttons can be programmed to respond only to multiple keystrokes “stacked” or be password protected.

Multiple Formats

- DTMF, Two-Tone, Single Tone encoding.
- All Call Tones
- Custom Timings

Programmable Radio

- Synthesized VHF or UHF. Wide/narrow band, CTCSS or DCS encoding.
- Operator Side Tone.
- Busy Channel inhibit.
- Transmitter hold after page to allow voice messages.
- Exclusive "Double-Strike" feature to prevent accidental pages.
- Backlit LCD screen prompts operators.
- Microphone ***

Flexible Programming

- Connect the 3300 to a USB port on a computer and you are ready to program.
- Optional password required before transmitting. ***
- Multiple codes with one button press (stacking).

Customizable

- Full view doors with
 - Weather gaskets
 - Door locks
- External Antennas
- Wall mount brackets

Warranty

- 5 Year Limited

